CAPE TOWN JAZZ SAFARI

There's an African proverb that says: "When the music changes, so does the dance."

We're keeping it real on this magical music journey into the heart and soul of Cape Town's jazz musicians. The experience is unique, it's special, and it's way, way deep.

In the first part of this journey, we will visit the home of a Cape Town jazz musician for dinner, with music and conversation. Prepare to be spellbound as you take in the soul of the musicians that define the sound of this beautiful City.

Depending on time, the second part of our jazz journey will take us either to a second musician's home for more music and a nightcap, or we will visit a fabulous jazz venue for the late set.

These wonderful Cape Town jazz musicians are among the young and the old; all of them are composers and performers.

A typical itinerary could look like this:

- 7:00 PM: Arrive at starting point, enjoy a welcome drink from the bar, while the guide introduces the evening
- 7:15 PM: Tour departs
- 7:40 PM: Arrive at the home of our first host for dinner and music
- 9:40 PM: Arrive at home of second host for a nightcap concert or visit a jazz venue to round off a special and intimate evening
- 11:00 PM: Drop off at starting point or centrally located accommodation

Highlights

- Meet local jazz musicians in their homes
- Dine on local cuisine in the homes of the musicians
- Discover the city through her music

CAPE TOWN STREET ART WALKING TOUR

“People say graffiti is ugly, irresponsible and childish... but that's only if it's done properly.” [Banksy]

You don't always have to visit an art gallery to see art. Sometimes art will come to you. This unique walking tour takes us on an informative artistic journey through the vibrantly restored Cape Town suburbs of Salt River and Woodstock. Graffiti art does not merely act as an adornment for the area's buildings, it is also proving to be a bridge between communities and bringing about positive socio-economical changes. Listen, see and feel the truths, the hopes, and the dreams that are told through this historical and evolutionary art form, brought to life through our knowledgeable guide. You will also get to interact with the local community and hear distinctive stories told first-hand by those who live here.

Highlights

- Past, Present and Future of Woodstock and Salt River
- Historical journey of Graffiti and Street Art in South Africa
- Evolution of Graffiti and Street Art around the World
- Murals from Local and International Artists
- Interaction with the Local Community
- Using Art as a form of Activism

TOWNSHIP CYCLE TOUR

Many visitors to the beautiful Cape are rushed past the townships in air-conditioned buses and never get to take part or see beneath the wondrous layers to the very heart of our rainbow country.

We want to take you to meet the real South Africa. We are excited to offer you the opportunity to interact with the people who drive this nation. We meet the amazing women who, against all odds, run places of safety for little ones while their parents work. We will get to learn local Xhosa customs (and maybe even how to “click” like a true Xhosa person). Prepare to be enchanted by a Sangoma (traditional healer) while he performs his ritualized medicine work. You will experience the heartbeat of Africa with dancing and drumming and enjoy a local meal.

We do all this responsibly on a bicycle tour of the Township. The local residents will welcome you – this is their way of playing a vital role in the tourism sector. Part of the proceeds of the tour go towards the betterment of facilities and play a huge part in the upliftment of a vital and vibrant community.

SHHH A SECRET WINETASTING AT KLEIN ROOSBOOM

<https://kleinroosboom.co.za/>

Have you ever wanted to learn the secrets of sabrage? Klein Roosboom invites you to their beautiful wine farm just beyond the rolling hills of the Durbanville Wine Valley.

At this boutique winery you will enjoy a wine tasting and a delectable cheese & charcuterie platter in their cosy wine-tasting room. Old concrete wine tanks were knocked open to create little tasting nooks (caves), each one differently themed. Their friendly wine stewards are always ready to share the stories of the farm and their knowledge of their wines in a fun and informative manner.

You can also enjoy dinner in the delightfully delectable dishes at Jéan Restaurant where the focus is on “unpretentious, beautiful, bring-down-the-house food”.

VIVE LA DIFERENCE! ORIGINAL THEATRE WITH A DIFFERENCE

Do you have a love for theatre? Original theatre? We're talking deeply authentic and an experience you will never get anywhere else in the world.

Written and produced by a local Cape Town theatre director, our theatre takes place in township backyards. Over starters, our host introduces the concept and the back story. Then the show takes place outside. Afterwards, the actor and director host you for a Xhosa dinner and conversation. The meal is a home-cooked spread of traditional isiXhosa dishes (gluten free, vegetarian, vegan diets are catered for).

It's dinner and a show with an extraordinary twist. Much of the narrative of working class South African life is played out in these spaces; an unforgettable experience.

THE SPICE WHISPERERS: CAPE MALAY COOKING TOUR

The Bo-Kaap – it conjures up images of colourful houses and people; but listen closely and you are sure to hear stories quietly whispered by the slaves brought into South Africa in the late 1600s. They tell a story of far-off lands they’ve left; but never their souls. This they brought with them. Their gift to us for eternity.

On this wonderful walking tour we encounter the intoxicating delights of culinary influences from Java, India, Malaysia, Sri Lanka, Madagascar and East and West Africa; all brought together in a fusion mix of heady and pungent spices.

Our tour starts off at the legendary Rose Corner Café in the Bo-Kaap. We spend some time meandering through the photogenic streets until we reach our cooking destination, a family home, where the cooking adventure begins.

Be prepared to laugh and talk your head off and get your fingers really gooey and sticky, as we learn the cooking techniques and family secrets of how to mix the perfect Masala spices to make chilli bites, rotis and the perfect way to fold samoosa pastry. It’s the best, best fun you can ever have.

If you haven’t already had your fill of tasty treats, you will then have the opportunity to totally pig out on your culinary creations and enjoy the company of your hosts and tour companions. Arrive back “home” well-fed, good-kind-of-exhausted, and with a new-found appreciation for the fabulous Cape Malay cuisine. We’re pretty sure you’ll be excited to get home and try out your new-found skills on your unsuspecting family and friends. Have a blast! The scents of Africa will accompany you home; we’re pretty certain of that.
